

Production and

Quality Manager

Automotive (m/f/d)

Tasks and responsibilities:

- Managing customers and suppliers as regards all topics of relevance to quality
- Personally responsible for validation in the area of series design
- Compilation of test plans, checklists and QA plans and capability and stability analysis
- Completion of sampling according to PPAP and German Automotive Industry Association (VDA) standards in coordination with the customers (internal/external)
- Processing complaints (suppliers and customers)
- Hosting and participating in internal and external audits with relevance to quality, FMEAs on improving the quality of components and processes
- On an early plant start-up, work with Operations Manager to facility and HR tasks
- Report to the Operations Manager

Start of position: January 2019

Location: Almere, Netherlands

Your profile:

- You have a degree in mechanical and/or industrial engineering
- 2 to 5 years of experience in quality management (not quality system) in the international automotive industry and quality claim handling
- Good presentational and hosting skills and strong business-oriented approach in the area of QA
- Knowledge of the IATF 16949 or VDA 6.3 standards, certification is a plus but not mandatory
- Further training as a quality management officer (QMO)
- A structured, independent and results-oriented working approach is required for this position
- Good skills in teamwork, coordination and communication
- Assertive both internally and externally with customers
- Excellent written and spoken knowledge of English, German and Dutch are plus but not mandatory
- Microsoft Office Skilled user, Minitab an SAP is a plus but not mandatory

We can offer you a position with a varied and challenging remit. You will work in an attractive environment and with a dedicated team. You will have the opportunity to apply your strengths as well as your potential and to actively shape the development of our company.

Are you interested in this varied position which offers you considerable potential and a high degree of personal responsibility? Then we look forward to receiving your full application, including your salary expectations.

Please do not hesitate to contact Ms. Manuela de Vries if you have any questions.

